"Nicky was fantastic from the first meeting. She was very professional and her communication was very good. She worked independently with my venue to set up and collect the covers after so that was one less thing to organise on a very long to do list! The quality of the covers and sashes were great, with a good choice of colours and fabrics; the room looked lovely and everyone commented on how great the room looked. I could not recommend 'Sitting Pretty' more highly."

"We met Nicky from sitting pretty at the wedding fair held at our venue Northbrook Park. "Our chairs were so beautiful, the bows and colour made our room perfect!"

"Very professional and the covers looked incredible on the day."

"Nicky was extremely helpful from start to finish and the venue looked superb on the day. She was happy to order additional sashes in my chosen colour even though I was quite late in confirming numbers. She had a large range of sash colours and understood what I was trying to achieve (a subtle addition of colour as the venue was quite "busy" with architectural detail and a patterned carpet). The chair covers themselves were perfectly pressed and fitted."

"Nicky was great from the start. She offered so many options and helped us match the chair covers to our fairly unique colour. She was eage to offer other services, but very understanding when we declined, to the point of agreeing it wasn't the best option. On the day, she dealt with the set up with minimal fuss, but the ideal level of engagementt and support, at the point at which we were both quite stressed in arranging the rest of the day, I would have no problem recommending her to anyone."

"We used sitting pretty, they were quick to respond, knew what they were doing and made us feel that confident that we let them make some of the decisions about the wedding colours."

We had no problems with communication and felt confident in their ability from start to finish.
